

---

Iranian pipe prices up

Thursday, 02 Jul, 2009

It is reported that Iran's distributors have increased welded pipe price by around USD 160 per tonnes.

Pipe manufacturers believed that the HR coil price will be reducing again which make the welded price to be accepted by buyers. But if HR price do not down, pipe mills may be purchasing raw material by higher price as the HR stock was not able to meet the production.

(Sourced from YIEH.com)

For more news visit at www.steelguru.com