
Bulgargaz turns down shares in Kremikovtzi

Friday, 03 Jul, 2009

Focus News Agency reported that Bulgargaz will surely turn down the idea of swapping the steel mill's unpaid bills for assets, belonging to Kremikovtzi.

Mr Dimitar Gogov executive director of Bulgargaz said that "We don't need shares in a losing company, but fresh money. Without the money we're putting at stake the entire national gas delivery system."
