
Track real time steel prices in Italy, Spain and Germany

Saturday, 10 Oct, 2009

Steelprices-Europe provides up to the minute domestic as well as import pricing information for benchmark steel products in multiple categories in Germany, Italy and Spain as well as CFR Antwerp import offers on weekly basis to assist steel makers, traders, users and others connected with the industry to more completely evaluate steel pricing trends

Services

1. Domestic and import prices for flat products in Germany, Italy and Spain
2. CFR Antwerp prices for Plates, HR, CR and HDG
3. FOB prices, including longs, at Black Sea, China, India and Turkey

Methodology

1. Benchmark product in each category
2. Weekly updates through web site

Product location matrix - Pl visit http://www.steelprices-europe.com/spi_services/features_of_service.html

Other features

The prices are displayed on weekly and monthly basis. They also have search facilities to access old data from the archives. Graphical representation of trends and comparison of price movement 2 or more products is also available. A calculator to convert domestic prices into comparative CNF and vice versa is also provided, which takes into account all duties and expenses. In addition, you can monitor currency exchange rates, metal prices, BDI for the day as well as access their archives for past data. Other features include converters for weight, length etc, glossary and advanced search functions. The benchmark product price information is supplemented by global pricing news.

Inaugural offer

EUR 500 for 12 months access

How to subscribe

Register at www.steelprices-europe.com or send mail to admin@steelprices-europe.com

For more news visit at www.steelguru.com