
French steel export down in first 8 months

Tuesday, 13 Oct, 2009

According to the statistics, French export values hit EUR 27.74 billion in August, down by 19.48% YoY.

From January to August 2009 period, France exported steel and alloy of EUR 4.82 billion, down by 41.07% YoY.

From January to August 2009 period, France exported pipe and cold rolled strap of EUR 1.31 billion and EUR 280.93 million, down by 34.16% and 46.99% respectively on last year.

For more news visit at www.steelguru.com