
Kobe Steel restores copper strip output to 2008 peak levels

Tuesday, 20 Oct, 2009

Nikkei reported that Kobe Steel Limited will boost production of copper strip products to 5,000 tonnes per month restoring output to the peak from the spring of 2008 by restarting machinery idled after the global financial crisis hit last fall.

(Sourced from Nikkei)

For more news visit at www.steelguru.com