
Japan September copper cable shipments down 17pct YoY

Sunday, 25 Oct, 2009

Reuters reported that Japanese copper wire and cable shipments amounted to an estimated 57,800 tonnes in September down 17.4% from a year earlier.

Data provided by the Japanese Electric Wire and Cable Makers' Association showed that was up from actual 50,531 tonnes in August.

(Sourced from Reuters)

For more news visit at www.steelguru.com