
Natural Blue Resources forms Natural Blue Steel LLC

Friday, 13 Nov, 2009

Natural Blue Resources Inc announced that it has formed a wholly owned subsidiary called Natural Blue Steel LLC.

Mr Toney Anaya chairman & CEO of Natural Blue Resources said that "The worldwide demand for recycled steel presents an exciting opportunity for our company. Recycling is a core mission of Natural Blue Resources, and we continue to integrate various 'green space' industries in our business growth strategy."

He added that "The addition of a global business in the recycled steel market will be a focal point of our company. Natural Blue Steel has already begun to assemble an impressive list of customers, and management believes that in the near term Natural Blue Steel will be able to close its first order and shipment."

Natural Blue Resources has recently announced its intent to close a transaction with www.printresponsibly.com, an online printing company applying recycled techniques to the printing business.
