
Recession reports - Maersk on course for USD 1 billion full year loss

Sunday, 15 Nov, 2009

Container shipping is dragging AP Moller Maersk deeper into the red, with the group still expecting to post a full year loss of USD 1 billion as Maersk Line's woes continue.

Neither is there any relief in sight, with 2010 expected to be another difficult year for the world's largest ocean carrier.

(Sourced from www.lloydslist.com)

For more news visit at www.steelguru.com