
Tehran and Tashkent chambers of commerce sign MoU

Wednesday, 18 Nov, 2009

Mehr News Agency reported that Tehran Chamber of Commerce, Industries & Mines and Tashkent Chamber of Commerce signed a MoU to boost economic and commercial ties.

As per report, Mr Yahya Al-e Eshaq chairman of TCCIM and his Tashkent counterpart inked the MOU.

According to Mr Al-e Eshaq the 2 counties trade volume currently stands at USD 300 million. He noted that multi billion dollar trade volume prospects exist between the 2 states, however at the current slow pace of developments trade will reach USD 500 million in the near future.

(Sourced from Mehr News Agency)

For more news visit at www.steelguru.com