
South Korea launches WTO dispute against US

Saturday, 28 Nov, 2009

Reuters reported that South Korea has launched a dispute at the World Trade Organisation against the United States over US measures to raise prices on imports of steel.

The dispute involves the way the United States calculates anti dumping duties on imports of South Korean steel products such as plate and coil made by POSCO and other South Korean manufacturers.

(Sourced from www.reuters.com)

For more news visit at www.steelguru.com