
Taiwan screw exports to Vietnam in 2009 up by 50pct YoY

Tuesday, 09 Mar, 2010

(Free news on steel, iron ore, coal, nickel, copper, metals and mining)

According to the statistics, Taiwan's screw exports to Vietnam of 2009 increased by more than 50% YoY, driven by boom in infrastructure construction.

However, the margin of sales for Vietnam market is not as good as other markets. The average transaction price for Vietnam market is USD 2.109 per kilogram, lower than USD 2.316 per kilogram of Taiwan's average export price.

(Sourced from YIEH.corp)

For more news visit at www.steelguru.com