
NTPC commissions Feroze Gandhi Unchahar's stage III

Friday, 29 Sep, 2006

National Thermal Power Corporation Ltd has informed that a 210MW unit of Feroze Gandhi Unchahar Thermal Power Project - Stage III of the NTPC has been successfully test synchronized on September 28, 2006.

With the commissioning of this unit, the installed capacity of Feroze Gandhi Unchahar Thermal Power Project has become 1050 MW and the total installed capacity of the company including those owned through joint venture companies has become 26,404 MW.

For more news visit at www.steelguru.com