
KMML & ISRO to produce titanium sponge

Monday, 30 Oct, 2006

Kerala Minerals and Metals Ltd is taking up production of titanium sponge in association with Indian Space Research Organization, under a MoU signed in January 2006.

As per the MoU, the Vikram Sarabhai Space Centre will make available Rs 95 crore for the plant.

KMML is a leading manufacturer of rutile grade titanium dioxide in the country.

For more news visit at www.steelguru.com