Acesita change name to ArcelorMittal Inox Brazil

Sunday, 02 Dec, 2007

Acesita in a filing with the Brazil's securities regulator CVM said that its shareholders of Brazilian specialty steelmaker Acesita have approved changing the company's name to ArcelorMittal Inox Brazil.

Minas Gerais state based Acesita has liquid steel capacity of 900,000 tonnes per year and calls itself the only integrated stainless steel producer in Latin America.
