
Alstom bags major order from Fujairah in UAE

Friday, 22 Feb, 2008

BS reported that Alstom SA France's Indian subsidiary Alstom Projects India Limited has bagged 2 exports orders worth INR 592 crore.

Alstom Projects India Limited announced that it has received INR 242 crore order for Fujairah independent water and power plant at Fujairah in UAE. Alstom Projects will supply heat recovery steam generator for Fujairah plant, one of the largest desalination plants in the world. The order comprises design engineering, supply and delivery of five HRSGs.

Alstom Projects India Limited also announced that it has bagged INR 350 crore order for Bujagali hydro electric power station at Jinja in Uganda. The order for 5x51 MW Kaplan turbines for Bujagali hydro electric power station at Jinja has been awarded by Salini.

For more news visit at www.steelguru.com