
Montezuma Mining acquires iron ore rights at Mt Padbury

Friday, 28 Mar, 2008

Montezuma Mining Company Ltd announced that it has negotiated an agreement with Independence Group NL to acquire their 90% of the iron ore rights over the Mt Padbury licence E52/1529

The license contains approximately 23 strike kilometers of the banded iron and chert sediments that make up the Robinson Range.

For more news visit at www.steelguru.com