
Interros Holding completes asset split

Sunday, 18 May, 2008

Interfax reported that Vladimir Potanin's Interros Holding has finalized the purchase from Mikhail Prokhorov of a 50% stake in KM Invest which manages the joint investments of the two businessmen.

As per report transactions have been simultaneously completed on Onexim's acquisition of a 27.5% stake in Open Investments a 91% stake in Soglasie Insurance Company, 100% in Rosbank Management Company as well as a number of geological exploratory assets.

Thus, the split of the assets of the two former Interros partners has been completed.

For more news visit at www.steelguru.com