
Acindar wraps up USD 230 million investment plan - El Cronista

Wednesday, 11 Jun, 2008

El Cronista newspaper reported that Argentine long steelmaker Acindar has wrapped up a USD 230 million investment plan it began in 2005 which boosted the company's production capacity 25%.

The paper quoted Mr Carlos Vaccaro external affairs director Acindar as saying that "It will help us increase sales abroad where our product goes for 30% to 50% more than on the domestic market."

For more news visit at www.steelguru.com