
Swedish group Scania visit Chusovskoy metallurgical plant

Wednesday, 18 Jun, 2008

It is reported that representatives of the Swedish group Scania visited ressonoe production shop avtoessor Chusovskogo metallurgical plant.

Mr Andrei CHMZ Kopysov Director of the Commercial Affairs said overseas delegation met with the leadership of OAO CHMZ and met with samples of products produced by the plant. He said that "Before CHMZ faced with the task to withdraw ressonuyu products in the European market. This will require us, producers, to ensure stable quality goods. It is important for us to understand the requirements of Scania, which it presents to suppliers."

Mr Andrej Kopysov said representatives of the Swedish company familiar with the technology of springs at CHMZ as well as with the system of quality control at each stage of production. He said that "Today, the largest European car manufacturers continue development of the Russian market expand the geography of deliveries, built on the territory of our country their factories. Accordingly, they are interested in ressonoy reliable suppliers of products and what could become Chusovskoy Metallurgical Plant."

For more news visit at www.steelguru.com