
Shouqin gets inspection exemption from BVQ

Monday, 14 Jul, 2008

It is reported that recently, Shouqin Company formally got the exempt inspection certificate from France BV Ship' Classification Society and on July 1st formally implemented.

After getting the exempt inspection certificate from France BV Ship' Classification Society, the ship plate produced by Shouqin Company only need do their own testing related to meet the requirements of Ship' Classification Society, it help the enterprise save expense, shorten the time for certification.

For more news visit at www.steelguru.com