NCDEX plans to introduce electricity trading by October.

Monday, 15 Sep, 2008

The Hindu cited Mr R Ramaseshan MD & CEO of NCDEX as saying that National Commodity & Derivates Exchange Limited is planning to introduce electricity trading by October.

Mr Ramaseshan said that this would be done through an equal JV of NCDEX and National Stock Exchange. He said that “We have received the in principle nod of the Central Electricity Regulatory Commission and hope to launch in the first week of October.”
