
Tehran to host Rail Show 2008 in November

Monday, 29 Sep, 2008

The Islamic Republic of Iran Railways announced that Tehran will be hosting Rail Show 2008 in November.

The organizers of Rail Show 2008, an international exhibition of railways and related industries, have invited Iranian and foreign companies to the event to showcase their achievements and potential in passenger and cargo transportation, train accessories and signaling equipment.

For more news visit at www.steelguru.com