
Tehran and Tashkent railways to sign MOU

Thursday, 30 Oct, 2008

MNA reported that the directors of the railway organizations of Iran and Uzbekistan have planned to sign a MoU during their meet in Tehran.

Issues such as launching Almaty to Istanbul freight trains, Iran to Uzbekistan to Afghanistan railways cooperation, establishing joint transportation companies and transit development are being discussed in the 2 day meeting.

For more news visit at www.steelguru.com