
ThyssenKrupp Acciai remembers victims of tragic accident

Monday, 08 Dec, 2008

ThyssenKrupp Acciai Speciali Terni remembers the 7 employees who lost their lives as the result of the tragic accident at the Turin plant on December 6th 2007. Management, administrative board and employees of ThyssenKrupp Acciai Speciali Terni underline their heartfelt sympathy for the families of the deceased.

A memorial service for the seven employees is to be held at the Terni plant. A service will be held at Santo Volto church in Turin to remember the victims of the tragic accident.

All employees of ThyssenKrupp Stainless worldwide will express their condolences by observing a minute's silence at the group's plants in Italy, Germany, Mexico, China and the USA.
