
ICDA approves two new members

Monday, 19 Jan, 2009

International Chromium development Association has announced that it approved 2 new applications, bringing total ICDA membership to 105 members.

The two new members are Outotec Oyj, a mining and technology supplier for metallurgical industry in Finland and Setat Madencilik, a chromite ore producer in Turkey.

(Sourced from www.icdachromium.com)

For more news visit at www.steelguru.com