Nanjing Steel accepted as supplier to Saipem

Thursday, 12 Feb, 2009

It is reported that Nanjing Steel is finally approved as the qualified supplier for Italian oil company, Saipem after the oil businessman verified the steel maker's quality system days ago.

Meanwhile, Saipem still expresses the intention to recommend Nanjing Steel as the global supplier for Total, the French oil magnate.

Saipem is a famous oilfield equipment manufacturer under the Italian oil bigwig, ENI, who is the 8th oil MNC in the world.
