
Terrain Minerals appoints Mr Paul Dickson as director

Wednesday, 04 Mar, 2009

Terrain Minerals Limited announced that the appointment of Mr Paul Dickson as a director of Terrain Minerals Limited.

Mr Dickson has a B. Econ from Victoria University and over twenty years experience in the finance services industry. He has worked with a number of stock broking firms including Ord Minett Limited and Colonial Stock broking and more recently has been a director of a number of boutique banking firms. He is currently a director of Bligh Capital Private Limited who provides a range of services including capital raisings and general corporate advice for small cap companies.

The release said that “Mr Dickson's appointment brings additional market contacts, corporate experience and capital raising expertise to Terrain at a time of difficult market conditions.”

For more news visit at www.steelguru.com