
Oman has ability to face global crisis - EIU

Friday, 27 Mar, 2009

According to London based Economist Intelligence Unit, Oman has been placed first among Arab countries in terms of ability to face the challenges of the global financial crisis.

The report covered 165 countries and reviewed their exposure to social risks with countries scoring zero facing no risk and 10 the highest degree of risk.

Norway came first, Denmark second, Canada third, Sweden fourth. Britain ranked 132nd and the US 109th. EIU put the Sultanate in the 149th place with 3.9 points, followed by the UAE and Qatar at 142nd with 4.1 points. Kuwait came 98th, Saudi Arabia 82nd and ?Egypt 105th.

(Sourced from khaleejtimes.com)

For more news visit at www.steelguru.com