Iran and Kenya ink power agreement

Saturday, 09 May, 2009

Mehr News Agency reported that Mr Hamid-Reza Salehi Iran's Power Industry Syndicate Secretary and Mr Kiraitu Murungi energy minister of Kenya signed an MOU to promote cooperation in the electric power industry.

As per report, the Iranian side vowed to share its state of the art expertise in the power industry with Kenya.

According to the MOU, the sides agreed to support their company's activities in this field and to launch joint ventures in the both countries or in a third destination.
